Naturalness that breathes life into homes...

Natural viscose, which is produced from fibers obtained from beech wood, has a property that can breathe and ventilate itself naturally. Thus, it is not affected by dust and odors and thanks to its flexible structure, there is no deterioration in its form and shape even if years pass. If you want a carpet that always maintains the feeling of the first day with its high skin harmony, viscose carpets woven on special countertops are for you.

Wool comfort in homes...

Acrylic carpets, which spread the feeling of wool carpet under your feet, are very advantageous compared to wool carpets.

The first thing that comes to mind is comfort; a quality and soft wool carpet prepares an inviting floor...

Wool carpet shows an acoustic carpet feature by absorbing sound thanks to the insulation it provides. It also absorbs heat and not only keeps your living space warm and beautiful in winter, but also helps make the warm environment more suitable in summer.

These carpets, which do not form mold due to high humidity and humidity, provide a much cleaner and healthier use. If you like the feel of the wool carpet but cannot use it due to its disadvantages, acrylic carpets are for you!
